Description:

With his one-of-a-kind blend of autobiography, pop culture, and plainspoken Buddhism, Brad Warner explores an A-to-Z of sexual topics — from masturbation to dating, gender identity to pornography. In addition to approaching sexuality from a Buddhist perspective, he looks at Buddhism — emptiness, compassion, karma — from a sexual vantage. Throughout, he stares down the tough questions: Can prostitution be a right livelihood? Can a good spiritual master also be really, really bad? And ultimately, what's love got to do with any of it? While no puritan when it comes to non-vanilla sexuality, Warner offers a conscious approach to sexual ethics and intimacy — real-world wisdom for our times.

All of us have demons; those thoughts and desires that we would prefer to never confess, and most humans have desires that are considered normal, though probably still not discussed in public. How do our carnal thoughts and desires fit within Buddhist belief? Brad delivers the reality of actual Buddhist theory and practice as it pertains to our sexual side. Not a traditional view of Buddhism, but one more in line with the original intent of Siddhartha Gautama and how he originally prescribed celibacy for his early monks.
